11th Cycle Of Arabia CSR Awards Launched

Under the 11th cycle of the Arabia CSR Awards, we are introducing a new category with the introduction of a new sector specific category in the awards this year.

The Arabia CSR Awards recognize and reward organizations for the first time in the domestic industry by awarding a special award for social responsibility.

With the introduction of a new sector specific category, the awards will be opening 21 categories this year, giving the bid for both public sector and private sector companies. The categories are Public Sector, Legal, Aviation, Retail, Energy, Financial Services, Social Enterprise, Educational, Hospitality, Health Care, Real Estate and Technology and E-Governance.

The awards is in collaboration with the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) and is jointly certified by the United Nations World Economic Forum (WEF). The criteria of the award are aligned with global and regional frameworks and standards, namely the UN Global Compact Ten Principles, GRI and the Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) success evaluation model.

Launch of the 11th Cycle of the Arab World's Own CSR Benchmarking Tool

USRA, United Arab Emirates (UAE) – The region's premier CSR and Sustainability Awards are officially launched for the United Arab Emirates this morning at the Grand Millennium Hotel, the venue sponsor of the event. Clearly an industry first, the Arab CSR Awards have been successful in awarding best practice objectives and proven accomplishments across the Arab region. With an objective being to assess international CSR and sustainability developments, trends and standards in the Arab world, the Arab CSR Awards recognize that progressive, visionary leadership and commitment to Corporate Sustainability. With the introduction of seven sector specific categories, the Awards will be opening their wings this year. The categories are Public Sector, Legal, Medical, Social, Energy, Financial Services, Social Enterprise, Communities, Hospitality, Real Estate, New Business and Partnership & Collaborations.

In its 10th anniversary year today, the Arab CSR Awards have been re-shaped several times to make it the best and leading award scheme in the region. In its collaboration with the UNCTAD and externally verified by ISO 26001, the criteria of the awards are derived from global and regional international standards, namely the UN Global Compact Principles, GRI and the European EFQM Business Excellence model. All organizations representing 20 sectors have registered to participate in the Awards, with more than 1,000 applications received, 12 countries have been covered and 10 awards have been conferred on the CSR champions of the Arab.

Speaking at the press launch, Arab CSR Awards President and CEO Hisham Al-Mutairi said, "The Arab CSR Awards are now the Arab region's own benchmark in CSR and sustainability. Using the application process, hundreds of organizations have been able to upgrade their CSR and sustainability practices and brought into alignment with international standards and best practices."

Ms. Hisham Al-Mutairi added, "The 11th award cycle of the Arab CSR Awards. The 11th award cycle will be a milestone for the Awards as it will be the first time that the awards will be held in the Arab region. The 11th award cycle will be a milestone for the Awards as it will be the first time that the awards will be held in the Arab region. The 11th award cycle will be a milestone for the Awards as it will be the first time that the awards will be held in the Arab region."

The sponsors and supporters of the 11th Awards are the venerable Gulf Petrochemical Industries Company (Gulf Petrochemical Sponsor), Emirates Environmental Group (Environmental Partner), Nisra CSR, country partner in USA and Technology (country partner in Kuwait).

Editor's notes:

The Arab CSR Awards is a professional membership organization established in the UAE in 2004. It is devoted to advancing the principles and practices of Corporate Social Responsibility in the Arab region. The Arab CSR Awards was the first GRI certified leading partner for the Arab speaking Middle East countries. The Arab CSR Awards services include training, research and best practice advisory services, that party assessment, benchmarking platform and a free Arab national award and honor initiative.

Launch of the 11th Cycle of the Arab World's Own CSR Benchmarking Tool

The region's premier CSR and sustainability awards was officially launched in the United Arab Emirates this morning at the Grand Millennium Hotel, the venue supporter of the event. Currently in its eleventh cycle, the Arabio CSR Awards have been successful in covering best practices of public and private establishments across the Arab region. With an objective to bring the latest international CSR and sustainability developments, trends and standards to the Arab world, the Awards recognize organizations that demonstrate outstanding leadership and commitment to Corporate Sustainability. With the introduction of a new sector-specific category, the Awards will be spanning twelve categories this year. The categories are: Public Sector, Large, Medium, Small, Energy, Financial Services, Social Enterprise, Construction, Hospitality, Healthcare, New Business and Partnerships & Collaborations.

In its 11 prestigious years history, the Arabio CSR Awards have been re-shaped several times to make it the best and leading award scheme in the region. In a collaboration with the UAE and externally verified by DNV GL, the criteria of the award are derived from global and regional frameworks and standards, namely, the UN Global Compact Ten Principles, GRI and the European EFQM business excellence model. Over 100 organizations representing 12 sectors have registered to participate in the Awards, with more than 1,000 applications received, 10 matches have been awarded and six awards have been conferred as the CSR champions of the Arab.

11th cycle of Arabia CSR Awards launched

12 award categories this year to entities that demonstrate leadership and commitment to corporate sustainability

Dubai: The 11th cycle of the Arabia CSR Awards was launched on Wednesday with the introduction of a new sector-specific category in the awards this year.

The Arabia CSR Awards recognise and honour organisations in the Arab region that demonstrate outstanding leadership and commitment to corporate sustainability.

With the introduction of a new sector-specific category, the awards will be spanning 12 categories this year, raising the bar for both intra-sector and cross-sector competition. The categories are Public Sector, Large, Medium, Small, Energy, Financial Services, Social Enterprise, Construction, Hospitality, Health care, New Business and Partnerships and Collaborations.

The awards is in collaboration with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and externally verified by one of the world's most reputed providers of business assurance, DNV-Gl. The criteria of the award are derived from global and regional frameworks and standards, namely, the UN Global Compact Ten Principles, GRI and the European EFQM business excellence model.

As many as 826 organisations representing 31 sectors have registered to participate in the awards, with more than 1,000 applications recorded, 13 countries covered and 161 awards conferred on the CSR champions.

12 award categories this year to entities that demonstrate leadership and commitment to corporate sustainability

Dubai: The 11th cycle of the Arabia CSR Awards was launched on Wednesday with the introduction of a new sector-specific category in the awards this year.

The Arabia CSR Awards recognise and honour organisations in the Arab region that demonstrate outstanding leadership and commitment to corporate sustainability.

With the introduction of a new sector-specific category, the awards will be spanning 12 categories this year, raising the bar for both intra-sector and cross-sector competition. The categories are Public Sector, Large, Medium, Small, Energy, Financial Services, Social Enterprise, Construction, Hospitality, Health care, New Business and Partnerships and Collaborations.

The awards is in collaboration with the United Nations Environment Programme (UNEP) and externally verified by one of the world's most reputed providers of business assurance, DNV-GL. The criteria of the award are derived from global and regional frameworks and standards, namely, the UN Global Compact Ten Principles, GRI and the European EFQM business excellence model.

As many as 826 organisations representing 31 sectors have registered to participate in the awards, with more than 1,000 applications recorded, 15 countries covered and 161 awards conferred on the CSR champions of the Arab world over the last 10 years.

Hosba Al Marashi, Arabia CSR Network president and CEO, said the Arabia CSR Awards are seen as the Arab region's own benchmark in CSR and sustainability.
